Welcome 2026! New Year New You!

January is a time for many of us to reflect on positive changes for the new year.

One area of positive change many people look to improve is their career. Whether it's finding a new job in your current field or trying something new, Oswego County Workforce New York can help assist you in discovering a new career that you'll love!

Stop by and see us Monday - Friday from 8:30am - 4:30pm to get started.

Oswego Build Wraps up it's first class

The first Oswego Build cohort completed their training in November and are currently applying for careers with the building trades.

Nine participants earned their OSHA, First Aid/CPR, MC3 and ACT Workkeys certificates as part of their 16-week training. Recent graduates have secured interviews with local building trades unions including Carpenters Local 277, Local Laborers 633.

The second Oswego Build cohort started with fifteen new prospective builders on January 12th!
